CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purcha-ers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to them-selves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. We can assure our friends and customers, that the univalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.

Our new establishment, GIBNONTON MILLS, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facilities for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain.

Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to be a superscript of the choicest kind.

belice, the words GIRSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIBsox, soxs & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will procecute and expose any person or persons who may hereafter copy or use our Brands.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. PICTURES,-Some idea may be formed of the enormous sums of money which are used in the purchase of pictures by the wealthier classes in England, from the fact that the collection of the late Lord Northwick has produced no less than £95,723. The sale, which extended over eighteen days, terminated on Wednesday, and was attended by dealers from all parts of the world. Some of the prices must appear fabulous to the uninitiated. The owner of this collection spent a life in bringing it together, and now lector-wealth, taste and honor-qualities which are not always combined in those who profess a devotion to the fine arts. Roguery has no wider field for development than in art-treasures, and the sale of the wines, plate, furniture, linen, and other things are to follow. Such articles are heirlooms in the most noble families, and death is rarely followed by the auctioneer's hammer. His ple of years back. A MEXICAN LEADER .- Miramon appears to be about twenty-eight or thirty years of age, five feet nine inches high, and of slender, genteel figure, which is well set off by his fine uniform. He has beautiful brown hair. wears a moustache and goatee a la Napoleon, and his complexion is not dark, but slightly muddy. His brows are finely penciled, and there is a bad, sinister expression about his eyes and mouth. Miramon may be called a handsome man, but his countenance, head and entire bearing, give no evidence of commanding intellect, or traits of character such as we look for in a superior general or statesmon. Miramon is nothing of the kind. He is a butcher at heart. "VATICAN."-Many who see this word, may not understand its import. It is a pile of buildings covering a space of 1,200 feet in length and 1000 in breadth, on one of the seven hills of Rome. The site was once the garden of the barbarous Nero. Early in the sixth century the Bishop of Rome creeted there an humble dwelling. This has been added to by one Pope after another until it is now one of the most spacious and magnificent palaces, stocked with paintings, statues, books and antiquities of the rarest
